

Career Development Panel

Monday, May 13, 2019

3:00 - 3:45 pm

Classroom C220

In this panel presentation, speakers will share tips and advice on building a career in the library profession. Speakers have a range of experience to share from conducting searches, reviewing resumes and making their own career moves. Whether you are early in your career, looking to make a mid-career jump or are just generally interested, this panel will provide applicable information for your career development.

Speakers:

Stephanie Davis, Midwest Collaborative for Library Services (MCLS)

Katie Dunn, University of Michigan School of Information Career Development Office

Rich Schrader, University of Michigan Library Human Resources

Dawn Winans, Kettering University

Moderators:

Denise Leyton, University of Michigan

Elaine Meyer, University of Michigan - Dearborn